

Student Discipline Procedural Due Process

In cases where violations of Board policy, regulations, and procedures require the disciplining of a student, the following elements of procedural due process shall be present:

- the building administrator/designee will inform the student that an allegation of student misconduct has been received. It will not be presumed that the allegation is true;
- the student will be provided with information either verbally or in writing, regarding the policy, regulation, and/or procedure specific to the alleged misconduct;
- the student shall be offered appropriate due process permitting the student to give their version of the events to the decision-making authority;
- if the allegation is determined to be founded, the student shall receive notice concerning disciplinary action.
