"If you think you can stand still, you may be certain that you are going back. We as a Nation will either go forward or backward, and whether we succeed or fail will depend more than anything upon the kind of training that you and those like you receive in your own home and in institutions such as this, and upon the use that you make of that training."

—Theodore Roosevelt.

Dramatics

"I Have Five Daughters," adapted from Jane Austen's play "Pride and Prejudice," was the play presented to a Roosevelt audience in the fall of 1946.

The five daughters were portrayed by Jean Workman, Marilyn LeMar, Hilda Greenberg, Lois Hinton and Joan Hauskins. The remaining household consisted of the mother and father. Evelyn Burt and Ray Yeakle, and Shirley Finefield, the maid. Marilynne Frasinger played the family friend. The suitors, Bob Dodd, Eddie Hutchings and Harry Roloff, met opposition when Jean Barvinek as Lady Catherine tried to prevent their marriages. But the mother's will had its dominating effect and she succeeded in marrying off three of her five daughters.

Th three one-act plays presented April 11, 1947 were "My Own True Love," a comedy starring Shirley Perry, Chuck McMullen, Virginia Vavra and Harry Roloff, "Antic Spring," a pantomime starring Hugh Van Cleve, Shirley Finefield, Pat Curry, Robert Stone, Donald Dodd and Pat Carney, and "Air Tight Alibi," a light mystery enacted by Joan Hauskins and Ken Ritchie.

These plays were produced under the direction of Roberta Dinwiddie Sheets, aided by student director Jo Ann Clark.

Athletics

Clarence Paulson is athletic director, football and track coach at Roosevelt. After graduating from Iowa State Teachers College in 1931, Mr. Paulson was superintendent at Elk Horn for five years. He was head coach at Lennox for three years and coached at McKinley for three years.

After four years at Roosevelt, Mr. Paulson served two and one-half years as a lieutenant in the navy, and last fall returned to Roosevelt to resume his duties.

Clem Carney, coach for Roosevelt's sophomore football, varsity basketball, and baseball teams, and also junior high school physical education instructor, was graduated from Roosevelt in 1935. He is also a graduate of Coe College.

After two years at Van Horne, and a year in the service, Coach Carney taught at McKinley High, and is now completing his third year at Roosevelt. That school spirit will increase and enthusiasm for sports will pick up is the wish that Coach Carney expressed for Roosevelt.

Stewart Cooper is Roosevelt high school's physical education instructor, assistant coach for varsity football and track. Mr. Cooper was graduated from Iowa State Teachers College in 1931. Competing in three sports, he received three letters in basketball, four in football, and four in track.

Coach Cooper taught four years at Albert City and has been at Roosevelt for 12 years. Mr. Cooper expressed the opinion that if physical education were put on a day-to-day basis, more physical progress could be made.

Third Row: James Champlin, Bill Stodola, Charles Dorsey, Bill Dale, Bob Pierson, Dewey Rudd, Al Seabrooke, Earl Potter, Clyde McMillan, Marvin West, Bryce Hahn, George Harl, Bob Thompson.

The 1946 football season of Roosevelt's Roughriders wasn't too successful from a game winning standpoint. The Riders triumphed in only two of nine games. Navy veteran, Clarence Paulsen, returned to replace Sam Cooper as head coach. Also returned were five lettermen: Art Van Cleve, elected honorary captain; Dick Drew, Jack Abshire, Vern Dvorak, and Joe Gas-kill.

Bill Brown's passes to Frank Sturm proved successful all through the season, and hopes are high for next year as fifteen under-classmen earned CR's. Shortly after the season's end, Coach Paulsen announced his intention not to coach the 1947 team because of ailing health.

ROOSEVELT BASKETBALL '46-'47

Coach Clem Carney started the '46-'47 cage season with veterans Bill Dale and Frank Sturm, both lettermen; Art Van Cleve, Jack Carpenter, and Glen Ebert. This troop of sharpshooters was supplemented by numerous ex-sophs.

The Teds lost their first two games at Manchester and Marshalltown but retaliated at home by whipping U. High of Iowa City, 27-14. The Red and Blacks were then upset by Franklin, and Waterloo dunked the Riders, 41-32. A frigid Rambler team carried home a bad defeat which was duplicated the next week by the Golden Bears. Then followed three quick defeats at the hands of hot teams of Iowa City, Clinton, and East Waterloo.

The Riders met the Bolts at Coe the next week and clinched a hot, tossup game, 28-26. This upset was accomplished despite the absence of three first stringers. Roosevelt finished the season by defeating Dubuque.

Carney's hoopsters pumped in enough buckets to place second in the city. Jack Carpenter was high point man with 109 points, followed by Bill Dale, who tallied 108.

Track

Roosevelt's 1947 track season began with C. A. Paulson as head coach and S. A. Cooper assisting.

Seven lettermen and several sophs formed the nucleus of this year's squad. The letter winners were Don Claytor, Jack Cahalan, Roger Marks, Joe Gaskill, Billy Dale, Al Fisher and Don Blood.

Working out in the distances this season were Kenny Johnson, Jack Cahalan and Billy Dale; middle distances were Ocie Trimble, Wayne Basler, Bob Hale, Joe Gaskill and Orville Uthoff; dashes were Don Blood, Joe Gaskill, and Don Claytor; hurdles were Chuck Hinton and Keith Nemmers.

In field events we had pole vaulting, Al Fisher; broad jump, Al Fisher, Roger Marks, and Don Claytor; high jump, Billy Dale; shot put, Charles Dorsey, Roger Marks, Vern Dvorak, Joe West, and Dick Riley; and discus, Charles Dorsey, Roger Marks, Vern Dvorak, Joe West and Dick Riley.

Although Roosevelt did not have as good a team as it has had in past years, there were several standouts this season.

Look ahead, Seniors —

Soon we will graduate. We must think of the days that lie ahead. Some of our classmates will go on to great heights. However, most of us will become just Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public. It cannot be rightfully said — JUST—Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public, for on our shoulders will fall the responsibilities for a better America.

Yes, Seniors, we have a difficult task to accomplish. It's up to us to work together for a greater America. Look ahead, Seniors, look ahead.

—R. Marks.
