Toiling Teens of Annual Staff

Wondering about the outcome of the typical boy and girl election are Joan Elliott, Billie Lebkisher, Neoma Orr, Duane Starnes, Carole Delaney, Allen Hoover, Marilyn Beeson, and Marjorie Probst.

"Learning must proceed from everything, even from our mistakes." These are the words of Principal Fred J. Kluss, who has been the seniors' efficient leader since they were in seventh grade. Not only is Roosevelt's principal efficient in school, but he also has proved capable in outside activities. Mr. Kluss, "Papa" Kluss to some, is a present member of the Public Library Board, Speakers Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Phi Delta Kappa and Tau Kappa Alpha fraternities. The principal received his B.A. degree at Cornell college and his M.A. at the State University of Iowa. After teaching in Minnesota, Cherokee, and Waterloo, he assumed the position of principal at Grant high school. Since 1935 Mr. Kluss has been head of Roosevelt high school.

For the first time in Roosevelt's history, Principal Fred Kluss has an assistant who shares the responsibility of the administration. The assistant is Harry K. Burmeister who is also a commercial teacher. "H. K." earned his B.S. and M.A. degrees at Coe and SUI.

"Old Faithfuls" of Roosevelt high discussing students' records are familiar sights to us all. Miss Addie Zika, former instructor at Grant high school, now rates as the one and only "Dean" to all girls. Miss Zika received her B.A. degree at Coe college and has studied at the American College of Physical Education in Chicago, Columbia university, and the University of Iowa. Among Dean's many outstanding activities is the Business and Professional Women, of which she is a past president.

Harold E. Myron, one of the "regular fellows" around school, came to Roosevelt from Quasqueton. Mr. Myron was given his B.A. degree at North Dakota State college, and his M.A. at SUI. He has assumed the position of the first full-time dean of boys at Roosevelt. Besides being especially interested in photography, Dean Myron enjoys reading and traveling in his leisure hours if there are any to spare.

Is it true? Could it be that the larger proportion of women on the faculty is the reason why girls do better in school than boys? Backing up this statement are Robert Hutchinson, Jim Freeman, Miss Lorene Harrington, Miss Roberta Sheets, Mrs. Ellen Torstenson, Miss Anna Grissel, Miss Berenice Moffit, Miss Elizabeth Terrill, Miss Lucille Duncan, Ted Anderson, Mrs. Doris Thorne, and Miss Jessie Chambers.

On the other hand, maybe it's the men teachers that have the deciding influence on the feminine scholastic standing. Just to show you what we mean, here are Ross Miller, Chester Mau, Clem Carney, Joe Stolar, Stephan Pattee, Miss Esther Chapin, Miss Jeanette Williams, Clarence Eernisse, and Paul Jones.

"Thank goodness it's Friday!" is the unanimous sentiment of most pupils at the end of each week. If the teachers don't echo the thought, they are possessed of angelic patience. Indeed they all must have some of that quality to stay cheerful and full of pep. Naturally it's the understanding, perseverance, and tactfulness of the present faculty that keeps RHS rolling on its wheels. The modern school teacher is a far cry from the cartoon of the o'd "school marm" pounding oodles of knowledge into pupils' heads with a shaking forefinger and a stiff ruler. Besides instructing a full schedule of classes, the faculty keeps a watchful eye on The Record and Roundup; clubs are advised; dances, social activities, graduation exercises, and extra curricular jobs are shared. Teachers even find time to take tickets at games!

January Seniors . . .

THEODORE ANDERSON — specialized in athletics; went all out for track in '48; basketball in '46, '47; "Ted" won his letters for football in '46, '47, '49. He was vice-president of the 9th grade class, a member of Hi-Y, Music club, band '46, '47, '48.

JEANNE BAIRD — "Jeannie" is interested in many types of activities. She was in Officials club, GAA, Student Council '48, Y-Teen and Junior Y-Teen, debate '47, '48; in her senior year Jean was busy editing The Record, and with Quill and Scroll, Ushers club, and Prayer band.

ANSON BELL — "Louie" was letterman in track and football '47, '48, '49. He was president of "R" club and secretary of Hi-Y '49.

JOANNE CAVINESS — our cheerleader; also participated in band '46, '47, '48; orchestra '46, '47, '48; Clarinet quartet '47; Music club '46, '47 (sec. treas.). "Jody" was in Junior Y-Teen (pres.) and Y-Teen, Ushers club, Quill and Scroll, Record staff (feature ed. '49), GAA, Student Council '47, '48, and Aristotelian '48, '49.

NEIL HAMILTON—a very active member of Art club (vice-pres. '49); Hi-Y, and choir. "Nick" was 11A class vice-president. He was a letterman in football and baseball in '49.

DARRELL HOSMER—"Red" was in track '45, '46, '47, '48; football '47, '48; basketball '46; choir '48, '49; and Art club.

RONNIE KIMBALL—was out for track in '47; basketball '46, '47; won his letters in baseball in '47, '48, '49; football letters '47, '49. "Arky" also belonged to Hi-Y, orchestra, choir '48, "R" club, and Student Council.

As the graduating seniors in their caps and gowns marched to the seats reserved for them, there were many thoughts in the minds of the pupils watching them. With some, of course, envy was predominant. A sense of sadness lingered, but on the other side lay hopes for a bright and happy future.

DICK KUDA — "Bo" was very active on the Record staff '47, '48, '49; annual staff '48, '49; Quill and Scroll '48; and Camera club.

THOMAS McDONALD — kept a very busy schedule outside of school by whizzing around on his motorcycle and being a big soldier in the National Guard.

JAMES McNEIL — a hard worker on Record staff '47, '48, '49; "R" club (treas. '49); annual staff '48, '49; and he belonged to Quill and Scroll. "Mac" won his baseball letters '48, '49.

JOHN MILKE — spent his time in Thespians, Hi-Y, and "R" club. "Creamy" won letters in football '48, '49; baseball '46; basketball '48; and golf '48, '49 (capt. '49).

PAUL NOSEK — "Nosy" kept busy in Hi-Y (pres. '49); choir '48, '49; Rifle club; track '46; football '46, '47; and basketball '46.

SHIRLEY PETERSON — "Shirl" spent all her time in KKR, Prayer band, and TAB.

GEORGE STRATTON—better known as "Junior," kept a busy schedule as class president '49, and on Record staff '49. He won his football letter in '46, worked hard for the football team in '49, and belonged to Quill and Scroll.

VIOLET THORSON—"Vi" kept herself occupied in KKR, Y-Teen, and Ushers club.

RICHARD WISE—known as "Artie" around RHS, went all out for sports. He won his baseball letters '47, '48, '49 (capt.); cross country letter '48; and helped in track '49. He also belonged to Student Council '47.

ARLENE WOLLEAT—"Skinny" won the highest shorthand award given in Roosevelt. She obtained the Gregg award of 140 words a minute. Besides belonging to KKR, she was a member of choir '49, and Prayer band.

At least Bill Fisher is a gentleman as he picks up Sonia Martin's books. Watching him are Neil Hamilton, Jim McNeill, George Stratton, and Shirley Peterson.

BETTY PRATT—Betty was a faithful member of Prayer band, attending in '47, '48, '49, and '50.

Many of the teachers in RHS aided the Christmas spirit by bringing decorations to school. Don Mehaffey and Frederick She-ton are admiring one of these wreaths.

MARJORIE PROBST — During her high school career "Marge" belonged to KKR in '48, Thespians in '49 and '50, and Y-Teen in '47, '48, '49, and '50. She also belonged to Sigma Sigma and was on the annual staff in '49 and '50, and Ushers club in '47, '48, and '49.

BILL RASPLICKA — During high school Bill helped print The Record and the annual. His main interest was in science and shop subjects.

CHRISTINA RAWSON — All of "Chris'" leisure time was spent at the Telephone company where she put through calls to Canada and all parts of the United States.

LUELLA REID — "Louie" has been employed by the advertising department of Newman's and looks forward to June, when she will start a career as housewife.

MARILYN RUTLEDGE — "Shorty" was a member of choir in '48 and '49, and was in the cast of "The Chocolate Soldier." She was a member of KKR in '48 and Y-Teen in '47, helped Dean Zika, and served as hall monitor. She was also on the annual staff in '49.

FREDERICK SHELTON'S — major interest was science with shop subjects running a close second. After school and on Saturdays he worked as a roofer.

ROGER SIROWY — was a member of Rifle club in '48, '49, and '50, serving as president in '50. He participated in track '46 and '47 and football '46, lettering in '47. "Rodge" was also active in Student Council '49 and Camera club '47 and '48.

DUANE STARNES — was one of RHS's few all-round athletes, lettering in football, baseball, and basketball in '46, '47, '48, and '49. A member of "R" club in '48, '49, and '50, he was vice-president in '49 and took over the reins as president in '50. FTA in '49 and '50 (president '49) also commanded some of his time. Sports Editor of the annual, he was also vice-president of his class in '47, on the printshop end of the Record staff in '50 and a member of Hi-Y in '48 and '49.

DON STEUBER — lettered in golf '48 and '49 and played football in '47 and basketball in '46 and '47.

MARIE STUDDT — Was one of Roosevelt's faithful office girls as she delivered little white slips to conscience-stricken students.

RICHARD SURFACE — an active Thespians in '48, became president in '49 and '50. He was in choir for four years and Hi-Y and Student Council in '49. Participation in Manus Classica '46 and '47; Sigma Sigma '49 and '50; track '47 and '48, and basketball '49 and '50 also took up a lot of Dick's time.

MAXINE TAYLOR — began her high school career in '46 when she joined Junior Y-Teen and then advanced to Y-Teen '47, '48, and '49. Max was president of Usher's club in '49 and a member in '47 and '48. She also participated in KKR '47 (secretary '48); GAA '49 and '50; Spanish club '49, choir '48 and '49; FTA (treasurer '49) and was also on the annual staff.

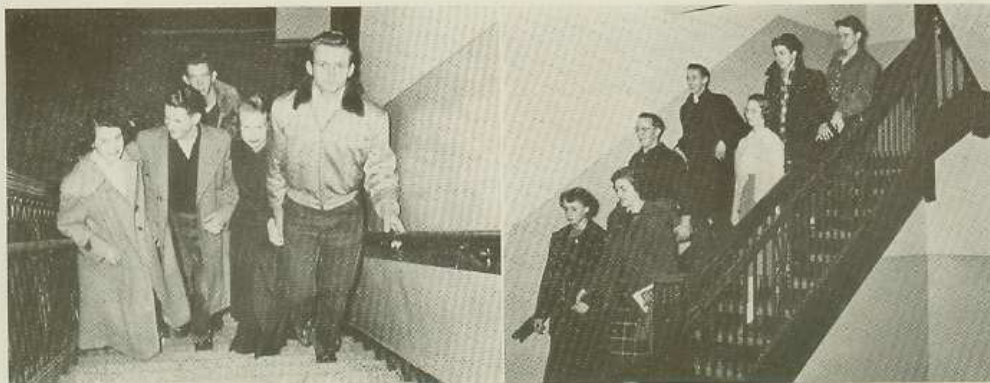

HAROLD TURNER — was every one's chauffeur as he carted kids home in his high-powered truck after school. Harry, an FTA member in '49 and '50, lettered in football in '47 and '49, and became a member of "R" club in '50.

JOHN TURNER — went out for football in '46, '47, and '48, lettering in '49 and becoming a member of "R" club in '50. FTA in '49 and '50 and Rifle club in '48, '49, and '50 also kept him busy.

When school is over for the day, we see Darlene Klahn, Patsy Gary, Wayne Bryant, James Robertson, Phyllis Nelson, Bill Welty, and Charles Long leaving school to start the trip home.

Wonder if Harold Turner knows what it is to start that car without pushing it? That's just what Fred Shelton, Bob Mally, Dick Gravenhorst, John Clevenger, Wayne Selzer, Jim Bain, and James Robertson want to know.

MARVIN WALKER—prexy of his class in '46, '47, '49, and '50, lettered in track in '47, '48, '49, and '50 and football '47, '48, and '49. Marv was also a member of Sigma Sigma in '48, '49, and '50 (president '49); Student council and Art club '47, Hi-Y '48 (vice-president '49); and "R" club '48 and '50 (secretary '49). The guys and gals of senior high voted him the "typical senior boy of RHS" of 1950 for the annual sales campaign.

VIVIAN WELTON—"Bibs" was one of those lucky gals at Roosevelt sporting a sparkler on the third finger of her left hand.

WILLIAM W. WELTY JR.—lettered in football in '48. Bill was a naval reserve member and also in orchestra in '46 and '47 and choir '50.

ALBERT WIENEKE—held a different kind of job as he worked on the farm at home during his high school career. At school he helped in the printshop on the Record and annual staff.

PATRICIA ANN WILLIAMS—"Pug" participated in KKR '47 and '48; Y-Teen '48 and '49, and GAA '48.

EARL WILSON—started exerting his leadership at RHS when he became his class representative to Student council. He was sergeant-at-arms in '48 and president in '49. "Willie" was an honorary member of Y-Teen in '49 and '50; Hi-Y '47, '48 and '49, Thespian '49 and '50; Annual staff '48, '49, and '50; Record '49 and '50; choir '50, Sigma Sigma '49 (vice-president '48); and football '47 and '48. Earl was also a Boys' State representative in '49.

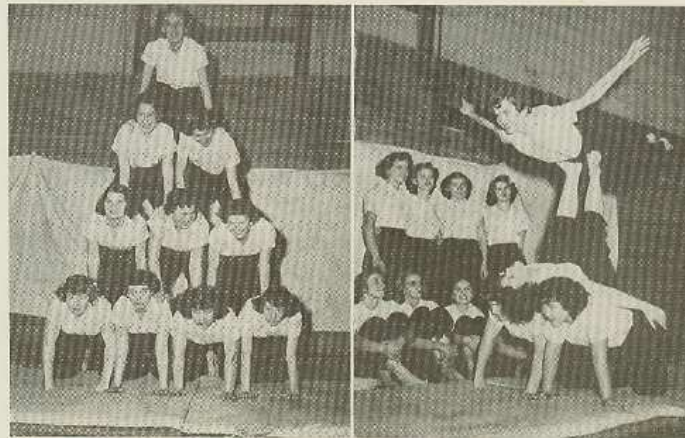

SALLY WOODFORD—'50 editor of The Record and assistant play director; was really a busy gal while at RHS. She belonged to Junior Y-Teen '46; Y-Teen '47, '48, '49, and '50; Student council '47, '48, '49, and '50 (secretary '48); Sigma Sigma '49 and '50; Thespian '48 (clerk '49 and '50), FTA '49 and '50, Art club '50 (secretary '47, vice-president '48, president '49), Aristotelian '49, '50 (secretary '49); Quill and Scroll '50; choir '47, '48, Record (assistant editor '49), and annual staff '49 and '50. Sally was also Girls' State representative, vice-president of her class in '46, and homecoming queen attendant in '48 and '49. Besides all this, she found ample time to get herself engaged.

Two RHS students shiver as they look at the thermometer, while the others literally freeze in their seats. This was a familiar scene around RHS during the February coal shortage, when everyone sported a winter coat indoors as well as out.

With the coming of spring came the crack of the bat, the dull thud of ball meeting glove, and the shrill chattering of infielders as Roosevelt boys adjusted their minds to thoughts of baseball. This year was to be an important one with full spring and summer schedules ahead. The Riders showed promise in their early season encounters, proving good enough for third place in the spring city race.

But it wasn't until mid-summer that the crew really hit their stride. After winning a few in the state tournament, the Tedmen were cut down by Franklin, and several seniors turned their thoughts to M-J ball. So with a literally riddled squad, the Riders came roaring back to win eight straight and annex the city summer title. The clincher came when an embarrassed state champion Franklin team was beaten, 5-3. Dickson, Franklin's state game winner, was the losing pitcher.

Other highlights were Duane Starnes' beautiful no-hit job at Coggon, Artie Wise's countless hits, and the spirited win over McKinley, 7-6, after lagging 6-0 in the second inning. The attitude of never-say-die that was a part of this team will never be topped, and their success proved to be well worth the effort.

Football

A McKinley Golden Bear is stopped hard by Roughriders Dean Darling (11) and Dick Gray (16) in the McKinley-Roosevelt game. Bob Besco (7) is coming up fast to the right, and Jack Dale (28) is also near at hand to lend support in case any is needed.

With only three returning lettermen to help bolster a light and inexperienced grid squad, the Roughriders opened the 1949 season against their namesakes from Des Moines and came out on the short end of a 27 to 0 score.

The next month proved disastrous for the Teds as they went down fighting three times against heavily favored opponents.

Returning home for their first intra-city game, the Riders fell to a powerful Thunderbolt eleven which almost turned the game into a rout in the first half. But in the fourth quarter, with Hamilton and Fisher leading the way, the Riders scored twice in less time than it takes to tell.

A week later a surprisingly strong Wilson team bowled over the Teds to the tune of 24 to 6.

At last Lady Luck smiled in the Roughriders' direction, and with Bell and Gray leading the way, the Riders carved out their first victory, 25 to 0.

In the last game of the season the McKinley Golden Bears ruined the Riders' Homecoming by squeezing out a 7 to 0 victory. This game ended the football careers for about half of a team that had never quit until the final gun.

Basketball

A rather dismal season seemed to be in store for the Roughriders as they opened their schedule with no returning lettermen and only four boys with actual playing time from the year before. But after losing their opener to Van Horne, the Teds suddenly came to life, and with four successive wins, found themselves at the top of the Mississippi Valley conference. Davenport was next and the Blue Devils lived up to advance notices by coasting to an easy 65 to 24 victory.

With Don Hickman leading the way, the Teds bounced back to take a hard earned victory from Franklin, thus throwing them into a tie with Wilson for first place in the city race. But the McKinley Golden Bears, still smarting from an earlier defeat, turned the tables and emerged with a 46-43 win. Jerry Martin potted 17 points to help the Riders in their losing cause.

For the first time the Teds apparently ran out of gas, and in the next month they lost six straight games before finally stopping Independence.

The next week against the alumni the Teds showed the old boys how it's done by romping to a 51 to 25 win.

In the state tournament the Riders lost to Wilson for the third time, thus ending the basketball season.

As the last football is packed away, thousands of people all over the land eagerly await the opening of the basketball season, and hundreds of coaches wonder what is in store for them for the coming year. Left to right are RHS coaches Paul Jones, Wayne Van Deest, head coach Clem Carney, and Jim Freeman.

The 1949 track team really got down to business and thus enjoyed the most successful season in the history of the school. Backbone of the team was Ocie Trimble, two time state mile champ. Ocie's best time in the mile was 4:28.5 which he established at the Drake relays.

The team was well balanced with many other outstanding performers, such as Stan Petrick, crack miler and half-miler, Anson Bell, the state pole vault champion, DeVerne Hersom, Ken Olson, and Jim Kunzman in the middle distances. Don Bomkamp, Dick Gray and Marvin Walker were consistent point getters in the hurdles, as were Bob Besco and Keith Babcock, sprinters.

They say that no team is better than its reserve strength, and Roosevelt was well stocked in this department with boys such as Dean Darling, Allan Hoover, and Tom Dietz, distance men; Wayne Fisher, high jumper and pole vaulter; Dick Gravenhorst and Don West, weight men; and Garland Wagner, broad jumper.

The Roughriders were most consistent at winning the medley and the two mile relay. At the end of the season Ocie Trimble was elected captain by his teammates.

Activities Stimulate Interest

Roosevelt Roundup Rally

When the girls around RHS become interested in the boys with letter sweaters, it's time for the Roosevelt Roundup Rally. At that time, the football team make nominations for the queen, and the student body vote for their favorite. The outcome of the election is kept a surprise until the "Homecoming" pep assembly where the Queen is presented to the guys and gals.

This year dark-eyed Maxine Lester won the coveted honor. "Max" was attended by Sally Woodford, Neoma Orr, Janet Drahos, and Jackie Middaugh.

The bonfire and pep assembly brought the excitement around Roosevelt to a fever pitch. Wilson, however, wrecked hope for a victory by defeating the Roughriders, 24-6.

At halftime of the muddy game, the Roosevelt marching band performed exacting and difficult maneuvers, the last of which was the martial column through which "Max" and her attendants rode in a shining blue convertible. Council Prexy Earl Wilson gave "Max" an arm-bouquet of red roses and gave a bright yellow chrysanthemum to each of the attendants.

Band And Orchestra

"R" CLUB— Each year the male athletes of RHS have one main project. The aim is trying to keep the girls from wangling letter sweaters from the boys, always a problem for the "R" club. Boys are inducted into "R" club by the point system, earned by participation in major sports.

STUDENT COUNCIL—The Student Council provides an opportunity for students to take part in democratic government. One accomplishment of the council this year was the development of a better parking lot at school. Members also have drawn up plans for renumbering classrooms and budgeting activity funds. Sponsor is Principal Fred J. Kluss.

THESPIANS— You don't have to be a second Shakespeare to be inducted into the Thespian troupe. You do have to accumulate a certain number of points, though. These may be earned by working on properties and costumes as well as by acting. Besides earning their points, these pupils were elected to run the club. Shown (left to right) are Sally Woodford, treasurer; Dick Surface, president; Rollie Lee, vice president; and Carole Delaney, secretary.

TAB—The Teen Age Book club is a branch of a national high school organization which furnishes an opportunity to obtain good books covering wide ranges of taste and style. The club also tries to stimulate good reading throughout the school. Officers shown are Dale Bertrand, president, and Pat Taft, secretary.

QUILL AND SCROLL— Quill and Scroll international journalism society promotes research and conducts surveys to determine the types of publication best suited to high school publication. Only pupils who are outstanding in journalism and are in the upper third scholastically are admitted to this honorary group. Pictured left to right: Sally Woodford, Jean Baird, Billie Lebkisher, Wayne Bryant, Zane Estes, Bob Besco, and Rodney Gould.

MANUS CLASSICA— Manus Classica is affiliated with the Junior Classical League, a national organization. The purpose of the club is to further the members' knowledge of classical subjects and to acquaint them with facts of current classical interest.

ART— The RHS artists spend much of their spare time going to various art exhibits. They also have time for the usual social life that every club maintains. Plans have been made for the painting of murals on the walls of the Children's Home.

BIOLOGY CLUB—Hunting for specimens on field trips and visiting places of scientific interest keeps these biology students interested during the school year. Steven Pattee, sponsor, conducted a tour through the Sanitary dairy and the city water works.

Kappa Kappa Rho—is a club for all girls taking a business subject. Its purposes are to study business problems and interests, to broaden the pupils' outlook on business life, and to bring about a fellowship among commercial students.

LIBRARY STAFF—What would you do without that certain person to help you locate an ancient history book, or find who wrote Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea? We would all be in quite a fix if there weren't someone to aid us. That is exactly what these "lib" assistants try to do in the library. Standing (left to right) are Jean LeVan, Patsy Fuller, Glenda Smith, Lois Pratt, Phyllis Boss, Emrie Usher, and Joyce Marsh. Seated (left to right) are Darlene Hasley, Marilyn Prochaska, Janet Youngquist, Lorraine Bertrand, and Pat Miller.

RECORD STAFF — Life of an RHS journalist isn't a bed of roses. His work begins in August before school opens and continues until the last day. No matter what happens, rain or shine, The Record must be published on time. This task is completed by Roosevelt's own staff of student printers.

PRINTSHOP STAFF — The "guys" on the Record printshop staff get plenty of exercise every day. Running up and down three flights of stairs to have the proof okayed keeps them limber. Monday is even worse than other days because that is the day when The Record is published.

MUSIC CLUB — Giving reports on composers or other musical data and issuing letters are the two main jobs of music club members. Initiation for new members is held twice a year. The main purpose of the club is to establish a means for RHS musicians to work for a common interest.

OFFICE STAFF and ASSISTANTS — It seems as if everyone envies the girls who work in the office. They are in a position to know all of the inside "dope." Besides that, they get to read all the notes sent out to the pupils—at least that's what we'd do!

Class Officers

As we all know, graduation is a time for many activities for the seniors. There are the dinner dance, class day, baccalaureate service, and last of all, commencement. The persons responsible for the planning of many of these activities are the class officers. Here we see George Stratton (pres. Jan. 50), Jeannette Estes (sec.-treas. Jan. 50), and Charles Tharp (vice-pres. Jan. 50) giving some good advice to Marvin Walker (pres. June 50), Aleda Lundquist (sec.-treas. June 50), and Bob Besco (vice-pres. June 50).

With the responsibility of being an eleventh-grade class officer comes the duty of making the arrangements for the annual junior-senior prom. This year Carroll Bauserman (pres. 11A), Maureen Fatka (sec.-treas. 11A), Dick Gravenhorst (vice-pres. 11A), Dick Apland (pres. 11B), Dorothy Widmann (sec.-treas. 11B), and Wayne Fisher (vice-pres. 11B) succeeded in making the prom a gala affair.

Generators of

Exuberance

Janet Villers, Shirley Randall, Glenda Schirm, and Charlotte Condon, Roosevelt's sophomore cheerleaders, supported the Sophomore teams with great enthusiasm. In this way they gained valuable experience to be used when they take over the duties of the senior cheerleaders next year.

Footprints on the sands of time."
