In Play ....

Kingston Stadium was completed in time for the '52 Football Season. Cedar Rapids is the proud possessor of the largest high school stadium in Iowa, with a seating capacity of 15,000. Of the eighteen football games played at the new stadium this fall, the Rider games attracted the largest crowds. We owe a great deal to Kingston for our new feeling of loyalty and our enthusiasm which brought Roosevelt out on top.

ROOSEVELT LOYALTY

We're Loyal to you Roosevelt,
Red and Black Roosevelt!
We'll back you to stand
'Gainst the best in the land,
For we know you can stand, Roosevelt.
Rah! Rah!
So smash that blockade, Roosevelt,
Go crashing ahead, Roosevelt,
Our team is our fame protector,
On boys, for we expect a touchdown
From you, Roosevelt.

This year the football team has accomplished a very good record. This is the first time the team has won the city championship since 1944. Mr. Hidingier, who is in his second year with us, has done a great deal in raising our school spirit towards football. The school has received a trophy for winning city championship and has received third place in the Mississippi Valley Conference. There is a football in the trophy case that is signed by this year's lettermen. Norval Lee was chosen as honorary captain for this year.

Roosevelt High presented its interpretation of Smetana's colorful Czech opera, THE BARTERED BRIDE, on November 7, 8, 14, and 15. Cast members were Joan Lewis as "Marenka," Richard Polansky as "Jenik," Garlan Hoskins, Gale Morey, Kay Herrbach, Leslie Gard, Susan Lentz, Ellis Wiggins, Sandra Dieterich, David Canfield, Jon Bruns, and Philip Woodford. Czech dances were performed by Cedar Rapids Sokol Association members. The director of opera chorus was Robert Hutchinson. R. Cedric Anderson, assisted by H. Dale Findley, directed the orchestra.

Cheerleaders

The backbone of the school spirit is the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders promote all sports, with their rah's and ya's in the pep assemblies and at all the games. Besides just cheering, the girls have other jobs such as chartering buses for out of town games, and putting on one or two skits for the pep assemblies. Row 1: Judy Thomas, Marilyn Mueller, Joan Mason, Ann Lefebure. Row 2: Marilyn Schirm, Beth McDonald.

Homecoming

October 31 this year was a lucky date for Ann Lefebure. Ann was crowned Queen of the 1952 Homecoming, at the Homecoming Pep Assembly. Entering on a float donated by the G.A.A. and the Lettermen's Club, Queen Ann and her attendants were presented at the half at the Homecoming game. Queen Ann and her attendants also reigned over the Homecoming Dance, which had the Halloween theme. Queen Ann's attendants were (from top to bottom) Brenda Beneke, Gerry McNeil, Marilyn Schirm, Norma Sheldon, and Diane Wagner.

Marching Band

What could add more zest to the halftime of a football game than the pageantry and music of a marching band? The Roosevelt High Marching Band, under the direction of R. Cedric Anderson, performed intricate drills at many of our football games. The band took part in the dedication ceremonies at Kingston Stadium with the bands of the other Cedar Rapids high schools. This year colored cap lights made possible special lighting effects in darkened stadiums. Among other civic appearances were the participation in the annual Christmas parade and in the Eastern Iowa Band Festival. The band was invited to march at Pella on May 9 for the Tulip Festival.

A new American flag and school flag were purchased for the color guard of the band. The new school flag contains Roosevelt High's coat-of-arms emblem, which appears on the cover of the "Roundup" this year.

Band and Orchestra

BAND

The concert band this year is composed of seventy members, thirty-eight of which are also members of the all-city band. In November they appeared on the Vesper program and the Roosevelt District Music Demonstration in May. Along with the orchestra they played in the Winter Concert in March. For the first time the Concert Band includes full symphonic instrumentation.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra consisted of fifty members this year. Its first project was to learn the full score for the operetta. The orchestra performed for open house, Winter Concert, and the Vesper Concert. Three members are in the Cedar Rapids Symphony, seven in All State and thirty in All City Orchestra.

In memory of Janice Proskovec who died in August, 1952

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
After him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

William Bryant.

And From Our Hearts

As we passed the school office each day, we noted three women who were continually busy. They often helped us by giving us information concerning such matters as our schedules, our teachers, and school equipment. These women, the office staff during the last year, were: Miss Mildred Smith, Miss Joanne Koehn, and Mrs. Delila Daniels.

FINN

A lively addition to RHS this year was Finn Dahlgren, exchange student from Sweden. Finn, with his quick smile and warm personality, made friends easily. His lanky build and "cute" face got to be a familiar sight. Girls practiced on their flirting because of Finn, and everyone envied his complexion. A Roosevelt Record Stated on his arrival, "Tell us, Finn, do you use Ponds?" We know we learned a lot from Finn and we hope he has learned to understand our people and customs in the United States better from being with us. We'll all miss him!

CLASS OFFICERS

The 12th grade president's duties are toastmaster at the senior dinner dance and to take charge of class day. He also appoints any committees that he may need during the year.
Pat Jones, vice-president; Karl Kullander, president; Marilyn Schirm, secretary-treasurer.

The 11th grade president is responsible for taking charge of the junior-senior prom and appointing committees to help him.
Kathie Miller, vice-president; Willie Holub, president; Carol Lee Williams, secretary-treasurer.

Tenth grade officers: Mohamed Igram, president; Beverly Bogart, secretary-treasurer; Jack White, vice-president.

ARISTOTELIAN

Roosevelt students from the 11A, 12B, and 12A classes are elected for membership in Aristotelian on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service shown in high school. As the students so chosen are honored, then R.H.S. is honored, also; for the fundamental purpose of Roosevelt High is preparation for the future. One cannot set limits on the futures of members of this group. Row 1: Janet Pattee, Barbara Davis, Lynda Woodford, Hjordis Anderson, Marilyn Worcester. Row 2: Janis Stodola, Elaine Anderson, Jayne Phelps, Sandra Harris, Gloria Gard, Jacqueline Shearer, Maureen Homer. Row 3: Ronnie Saylor, Kenneth Castek, James McGuire, Ray Jedlicka, Bill Holsinger.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Outstanding is the adjective to describe the work done by Quill and Scroll members. Besides this they must be in the upper third of their class to be eligible for membership in this honorary society. Members have worked on their school paper for two semesters. Row 1: Janis Stodola, Steve Sedlacek, Joyce Marsh, Carolyn Wells. Row 2: Barbara Davis, Gwen Krippner, Norma Sheldon, Maureen Homer, Virginia Rohbacher, Jim McGuire, Elaine Anderson, Gale Morey, Lynda Woodford, Emrie Usher.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student governing body of Roosevelt is made up of representatives of classes and homerooms. Among their duties are choosing and scheduling assemblies and trimming the annual Christmas tree.

One of the Student Council's major accomplishments this year was devising a new plan for choosing a Homecoming queen which will go into effect Homecoming 1953.
