Eight AM is early but Wednesday mornings forty RHS representatives met in the faculty dining room to handle the affairs of the student body. This year in addition to the customary business the council affiliated with the state and national organizations, sent representatives to the state and district conventions, sponsored more dances (to say nothing of the revolving lights), cooperated with the Booster club in sponsoring our most successful homecoming bonfire, elected representatives to the city traffic court and encouraged support of its program to the point where Roosevelt won the traffic trophy permanently for the 1956-57 schoolyear, met jointly with the Wilson council, and participated in several city wide conferences concerning the transition to the new high schools.

Highlights for the concert choir in '56 and '57 were the All City Vocal Clinic at Coe College in March and a tour to Chicago during Easter vacation, financed by an advance candy sale. The girls choir and RHS concert choir joined forces with the Wilson concert choir to present a Mass written by our director, Mr. du Bois, along with other separate and joint selections.

ATHLETICS

Homecoming Queen and Attendants

Kathy Sals, Donna Usher, Jean Hartl, Doris Sirowy, Marilyn Johnson, Kris Anderson, Sue Sutliff.

The Homecoming activities were opened with a bonfire pep rally. Sponsored by the Booster Club and planned by a Student Council committee, the bonfire committee, the bonfire consisted of pep talks by the coaches, the introduction of the queen candidates, pep band, songs and cheers led by our cheerleaders, and was climaxed by the burning of a gigantic "R". Suspense was high at the pep assembly as each candidate was escorted in on the arm of her favorite football player. Chosen by popular vote of the senior high student body, Doris Sirowy was crowned Roosevelt's Homecoming Queen of 1956 by the Student Council president, Bob Owen. The highlight of Homecoming was our victory over Wilson cinching the city football title for RHS. During the half time of the game the band played 'Just Walking In The Rain' while the Queen and her court, carrying small umbrellas the colors of the Rainbow, proceeded around the track on a specially decorated float. They were presented to the crowd in the center of the field and then took their seats of honor to view the remainder of the game. The following night our Queen, Doris, reigned over the Homecoming dance honoring the alumni. The decorations carried out the theme of Homecoming, 'Just Walking In The Rain'. Thus Roosevelt's last Homecoming was drawn to a close.

Class officers Stan Long, Donna Usher, and Don Thomas talk over plans for senior week.

Baccalaureate, held at First Presbyterian Church, was our first chance to wear our caps and gowns and march in our class processional.

Picnics and swimming dominated the afternoon of class day.

Dinner Dance

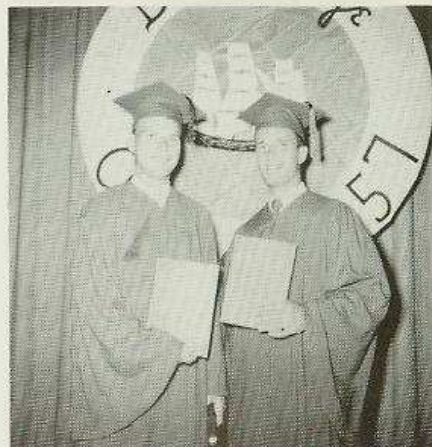

Class day was climaxed by the senior dinner dance at the Roosevelt Hotel.

We all listened attentively as the massed choir sang . . .

. . . and later Dr. Jackson Burns delivered the commencement address.

The long line progresses. . .

. . . and finally with the graduation of Charles Zvacek we have completed this the LAST ROOSEVELT ROUNDUP.
