Principal's Update—Tammi Kuba

*Viola Gibson 20th Anniversary coming up this year-there will be a celebration September 22

*Gator Gallop September 21st. K-2nd 1:15-2:15; 3rd-5th 2:30-3:15

*Viola Gibson Block Party September 23rd 5-7pm

*New math curriculum this year "Bridges"-the teachers are still getting acquainted with the curriculum but there will be an open house night to further explain the curriculum to families once teachers have become fully acquainted with the curriculum.

*Meet the staff social media posts will be coming to Viola Gibson Facebook Page to introduce new staff members to the Viola Gibson family.

*In need of new furniture for library space. Places for kids to sit and read. Our current seating options are very outdated and in poor shape. Would like to use some funds from PTA to purchase new furniture if possible.

Budget Update: No major changes, we have funds left over from last year that combined with some funds from the Gator Gallop we are considering purchasing new furniture for the library space.

Volunteer Update: Drop in volunteering will be the last Friday of every month.

Playground Update

*Will be getting a plaque made for the outdoor classroom to note the donation made by True North in the construction of the outdoor classroom.

*Also working on getting the brick pavers that were allotted when sponsors donated during the construction of the new playground.

*Gaga ball pit flooring needs to be further looked at and ordered to prevent injuries from the blacktop surface under the gaga ball pits.

New Business

Gator Gallop: September 22nd-will need volunteers to help. Goal is $20,000 in fundraising. Materials have been sent out to teachers; kids should be bringing them home to parents soon. This is our main fundraising even for the school.

Block Party: September 23rd 5-7pm—Food Trucks available, menus will be posted online ahead of time for all to see. Looking for any community organizations that may want to be involved in this event, if anyone has someone in mind, please let the PTA know.

Meeting adjourned at 7:30pm.
