

Middle School Social, Emotional, Behavioral Student Learning Expectations

The student should be able to:

1. Identify and demonstrate ways of respecting themselves and others.
2. Recognize the importance of getting and staying involved in school activities.
3. Demonstrate respect for individual differences and other points of view.
4. Use goal setting techniques to stay organized and on track.
5. Effectively communicate and manage their emotions.
6. Identify and practice strategies for resolving conflict peacefully.
7. Distinguish between responsible and irresponsible decision making.
8. Define and recognize bullying.
9. Demonstrate assertive behaviors to refuse bullying.
10. Follow the process for reporting bullying.
11. Explain the role of bystanders and their importance in reducing bullying.

