

6th Grade Computer Science Student Learning Expectations

The student should be able to:

1. Use the necessary computer vocabulary and terminology used in class.
2. Create, save, and locate files on the computer network.
3. Appropriately use a variety of technology devices such as digital cameras and scanners.
4. Format text and numbers in word processing and spreadsheet applications.
5. Create and share effective multimedia presentations.
6. Type 25 words per minute with 3 or less errors using the keyboarding program.
7. Cite electronic, print, and graphic resources used in projects and follow copyright guidelines.
8. Participate in discussions and presentations about the use of technology in a variety of careers.
9. Create and use simple spreadsheets to locate and display data.
10. Use technology tools to brainstorm, diagram, plan, and organize ideas and projects.
11. Begin using key word searches in appropriate search engines, electronic encyclopedias, and online research tools.
12. Locate appropriate information from electronic resources.

